MONDAY'S FEEDER CATTLE Sale Starts 12:30 PM

RECEIPTS THIS WEEK: 1104

Compared to the feeder market two weeks ago, steers $20.00-$25.00 lower & heifers $10.00-$20.00 lower. A few spots traded as much as $30.00 lower compared back to the higher market two weeks ago. The market activity was not bad as buyers were in the market, albeit at the reduced prices. Cash cattle prices continue to react to the beef futures trade at the CME, & once again Monday trade in Chicago was limit down for both the live & feeder cattle contracts. Calf & feeder buyers must make new purchases cheaper as sales on the back end, (especially the finished cattle), are simply losing to much money. Feedlots are losing hundreds of dollars per head as the price for finished cattle is falling way short of what was expected for this fall. Some live cattle trade took place last week at 134.00 which was 4.00 lower than the week before, & this week may see much lower prices again.
