Compared to the market two weeks ago, steers under 700# & heifers under 600# steady to $5.00 lower, with heavier weights of both steers & heifers steady to $5.00 higher on a light test. The quality was attractive for both calves & yearlings. The cash market certainly getting a boost from a three day streak of sharply higher cattle futures & a supportaive cattle on feed report last Friday that showed fewer cattle placed in feedlots in September than many people expected. Some calves still traded below prices from two weeks ago, but certainly better than if marketed last week when many auctions around the circuit traded near $10.00 lower.
