Compared to the market 3 wks ago, feeder strs under 600# $5.00-$10.00 higher, 600-700# firm to $3.00 higher, & over 700# steady. Feeder hfrs steady to $5.00 higher on a limited number of comparisons. Producers that held off marketing cattle until the new year arrived were rewarded with a mostly higher market. However frigid temperatures this past week has not made it easy caring for livestock, though precipitation has been light.
